Moët & Chandon's Brut Impérial can proudly claim to be the world's leading champagne. Made to share, made for lovers, made for celebrations, this house jewel is famous worldwide. Elegant and harmonious, the pale yellow liquid with green hints, the stylish yet familiar bottle never fails to impress. Super-fine bubbles disguise a nose of brioche underlined with floral hints and lime blossom. The taste is supple and refined with a refreshing finish, each mouthful an absolute delight. The champagne of birthdays, honeymoons, graduation ceremonies, weddings, you name it - Brut Impérial will make your special day special.

Bollinger Special Cuvée £45

The name "Special Cuvée" was created in 1911. The idea came from William Folks, a great British wine lover who felt it was an insult to simply call this great champagne "non vintage". The suggestion of naming it "Special Cuvée" was immediately approved by the House of Bollinger. Made from a special blend of Pinot Noir, Chardonnay and Pinot Meunier grapes, the cuvée has a proportion of reserve wines incorporated into the blend to produce the unique house style. Matured in Bollinger's cellars for a minimum of three years, it emerges with a fresh, aromatic, slightly toasted flavour with spicy notes. Delicate bubbles sparkle in the glass enhancing the smooth, lingering aftertaste.

Veuves Clicquot N.V £55

France's best known champagne harbours many secrets, but pop the cork on a bottle of Veuve Clicquot Brut Carte Jaune and you'll understand the fuss. The epitome of elegance and finesse, this smooth, perfectly balanced champagne is assembled from fifty crus and reserve wines producing the unique Clicquot style. An excellent aperitif due to its freshness and length, Brut Carte Jaune is classic Clicquot. Go wild!

Veuve Clicquot yellow label is a perfect example of harmony between delicacy and power. Dominated by Pinot Noir, this wine has a firm structure, rounded with a touch of Pinot Meunier. Nearly a third of Chardonnay gives it the elegance and finesse needed for perfect balance.

Dom Perignon £125

Dom Pérignon 1998 was left to mature for 7 whole years to reach what we consider as perfection. Aromas you will find are fresh almond, pamplemousse, cajean nuts and warm brioche. On the palate, it feels like silk so delicate is its touch, and this just goes on and on sip after sip.
